SOME TAKE-AWAYS ...

1. What is an example of a key risk to look for in M&A data privacy and security diligence?
2. If you want to minimize exposure to cyber risks and threats, should you take a siloed approach or a holistic approach?
3. What replaced the “Safe Harbor” after the EU found the US had inadequate protection for personal data?
4. What is an alternative to a full on-site audit of a vendor?
5. Did you learn anything new or useful today?
